I. Directions: Fill in the blanks with the English words which appropriately complete the story.

Many _________ were eating dinner with __________. Felix was also __________. All the _____________ praised the _____________ because the _____________ was _____________.

After __________ ate dinner, Caecilius _____________.

“___________ is ___________? _____________ is not ___________.” Then Caecilius ____________ Clemens out of the _____________. The slave searched for ____________ throughout the ________________.

After the ____________ left the ____________, Felix drained his _____________. Then the _____________ told a strange ____________.

“Once ____________ friend was ____________ the city. It was _____________, but a full _____________ was shining. My friend was _____________ through the _____________, where there _____________ a forest, and suddenly he _____________ a centurion. My friend greeted the _________________. However, the _____________ said nothing. Then the _____________ took off his _____________. Behold! The ________________ vanished. A _____________ wolf suddenly _____________. My friend was _____________ afraid. The _____________ wolf _____________ and _____________ to the woods. The _____________ was lying in the ________________. My friend _____________ the _____________. Behold! The _____________ was made of _____________. Then my friend _____________ the truth. That _____________ was a ________________.